Year 2015. It was my first year in College, I was so excited and curious and yet nervous at the same time. It was totally different from the previous institution and I have learnt a lot of things.

The most memorable moment in the institution was the time when we had first college week during our BA 1 was so excited as it was my first college week in my entire life. Excitement started from the very day of the announcement of college week. I love the whole preparation and took keen interest in every part of the preparation. I even made up my mind that i would love to take part in all the category that i am capable of. So i was interst in. I remember being so overwhelm and i still can feel the emotion till date. Preparation goes well and end up getting the fist prize in cultural dance.

So this became the most memorable moment during our college days. I missed the moment of being so energetic, young and full of life.

Use technology to make the class interactive like use of ppt etc

I don't really have any suggestion. It really improves from what i have learnt so far and I think it is good enough.

- 1) Better infrastructure and well equiped campus.
- 2) A college bus for easy transportation.
